

PHILOSOPHY

As your "full service marketing communications department," our goal is to create communications that represent you and your organization. We also want the materials to stand out from the clutter and move your prospects to action.

Like an internal department, we bill for our time on your projects. We do not believe in retainers. We do not mark-up services purchased outside our company. Working as part of your team, we develop strategies and create solutions to reach your goals. We manage projects from concept through production to delivery, on time and on budget.

Directed photography, designed, and managed production of capabilities brochure and website for Creare's engineering research and development services.

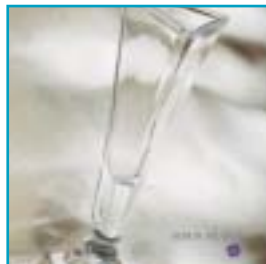

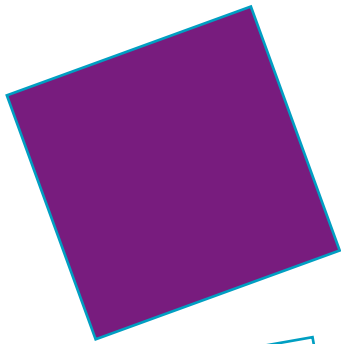

Directed photography, designed, and produced New Hampshire Industries' corporate brochure, advertising, display panels, and website to showcase capabilities.

Created and applied graphic treatments and corporate identities for companies and products.

CAPABILITIES

RESULTS MARKETING/COMMUNICATIONS works for clients as a "full service communications department." Working as part of the management team for client companies, we develop cost-effective, creative communications. Through long-term relationships, our clients gain the combination of "agency" creative and "in-house" accountability without the cost of a full-time staff.

Formed in 1989, we have experience in all facets of marketing and communications – from planning to creative to implementation to research. We also have handled all types of materials – corporate communications; websites; print, radio, and television advertising; direct mail; public and press relations; and audio-visual presentations.

Managed editorial and production of publications for publishing companies.

Created new logo form, stationery, presentation materials, and website to highlight projects and experience of Banwell Architects.

Created and produced newsletters, advertising and direct mail campaigns, and a complete design guide for Yankee Barn Homes.

Designed and developed educational and informative website to raise awareness of Pleasant View Retirement and Granite Ledges of Concord.

Developed website and print advertisement campaign for Centurion Corporation to increase awareness of insurance products and staff experience in the industry.

Created print ad campaign for King Arthur Flour copy to come copy to come copy to come.
